A CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Finzi: Magnificat
Gabrieli Handel Parry
Audience Carols

This Christmas, Henley Choral Society and Henley Youth Choirs will join forces in two festive concerts in one day, described last year as "one of the most satisfying Christmas concerts I can remember" (Henley Standard).

TRADITIONAL EVENING CONCERT / 7.00PM

Under the direction of Musical Director, Peter Asprey, this year's evening concert will open with the atmospheric O Viridissima Virgo and feature two major classic English choral works: Finzi's Magnificat and I Was Glad by Parry which is sure to provide a rousing end to the evening. The programme will be interspersed with audience carols, performances from the Senior Youth Choir, and beautifully festive works including Gabrieli's O Magnum Mysterium, the medieval sacred carol, Gaudete, and the wonderful O Holy Night.

In addition, back by popular demand, we are thrilled to be joined by Onyx Brass, one of the finest brass ensembles in the UK. They will be bringing, as always, their own unique brand of skill and festive fun, joining us in many of the items, as well as performing some uplifting solos of their own.

AFTERNOON FAMILY CONCERT / 2.00PM

Now in its third year, the Family Concert is becoming a firm diary date in Henley households in the run up to Christmas. Both the Junior and Senior Henley Youth Choirs join Henley Choral Society for an interactive and entertaining programme especially for a younger audience.

Last year tickets sold out for both concerts and are likely to again. So book your tickets today and on Saturday 9th December join Henley Choral Society for a festive choral feast.

Daniel Moulton, "one of the finest organist of our time" (The Organ), is renowned in the UK and abroad for virtuosic, intelligent and engaging performances of repertoire from the 14th to the 21st centuries

Peter Asprey is multi-talented and in demand as a conductor, chorus master, singer and singing teacher. He has worked with a large array of choirs and orchestras both in the UK and abroad and we are delighted to be singing under his baton.

Henley Choral Society is a friendly, lively, non-auditioned choir of all ages. We aim to sing together to the highest standard, work with young professional talent, deliver an exciting and varied programme of concerts to our local community and encourage the next generation of singers through the Henley Youth Choirs.

Sing. Enjoy. Support.
